

POLICIES OF THE CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Diocese of Birmingham in Alabama

Application for registration implies good will on the part of parents in complying with the philosophy of regulations of Catholic Schools, Diocese of Birmingham, Alabama (see Handbook of Policies).

“Every Catholic elementary and secondary school in the school system of the Diocese of Birmingham admits students, without regard to sex, race, color, or national origin, to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded to or made available to students of the schools. Schools do not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, or national origin in employment practices, administration of educational policies, admission and treatment of students, scholarships programs, or athletic and other school administered programs.”

It is also our right and duty to decline the application of students who do not meet our behavioral standards.

Prior to admission, all new students must present previous report cards or records and present birth or baptismal record for proof of age.

Children entering Kindergarten must be five years of age by September 1st of the academic year. Children in first grade must be six years of age by September 1st of the academic year. Proof of age must be presented at time of application, and it will be subject to verification.

Since this is a Catholic school, curriculum requirements call for students to participate in religion classes. During the school year, students are required to attend specified religious activities or services.

Any information on the application form which is later found to be erroneous could be cause for nullification or immediate dismissal of a student.
