_____ is applying to become a student at Prince of Peace Catholic School. One of the most important lessons Catholic education should teach is self-discipline. It is the mission of the school to provide students with excellent opportunities to acquire an education. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is respectful and obedient to teachers and other supervisors and one that is considerate of the rights and safety of other students. School rules and regulations help create a Christian community in which learning can take place. The school considers it important to have your time and honesty. Your comments will be held in confidence.

Please indicate the frequency and nature of the times during the past academic year that the applicant has been sent to the office for disciplinary reasons: _____

Is there pending disciplinary action, or is the applicant leaving with a disciplinary record? _____
